

Jewish Hospital Residents at ACP National Competition 2009, Philadelphia.

We are glad to announce that four of our residents were selected to present their abstracts at American College Of Physicians (ACP) National Abstract Competition 2009 held in Philadelphia and one of them (Waqas Ahmed) was declared as winner in the research paper category , bringing a big honor for our residency program.

http://www.acponline.org/residents_fellows/competitions/abstract/

Details of our residents' projects are as follows.

1. Waqas Ahmed: (Oral Presentation – Research Category)
Low serum vitamin D levels are associated with reversible statin induced myalgia-myositis.
2. Imran Naqvi : (Poster Presentation- Clinical Vignette)
Investigations Of Environmental Antigens In Pulmonary Fibrosis
3. Anand Pathak : (Poster Presentation- Clinical Vignette)
Reversible Pulmonary Fibrosis
4. Bishal Rawal : (Poster Presentation- Clinical Vignette)
Valproic Acid-induced Hyperammonemic Encephalopathy In The Absence Of Elevated Serum Valproate Levels